From the President

Hope you all have a wonderful Mother's Day. It hardly seems possible that May is here already. We are really ramping up for a good balance of the year with our Chapter. SDP Convention is in a couple of weeks, if anyone is able to attend we will be anxious to hear all the details. We wish our own member, Karen good luck in the election.

It seems summer is just around the corner, so we will be getting started on our door project before the heat beats us out. Please consider joining us for the painting. It will be a lot of fun as we always have a good time when our group gets together.

Just a reminder from the last meeting for those that were there and if not, please read the minutes, I issued a challenge for painting Hope boxes. I had already started on my end of the deal so when you sit down to paint, maybe do an extra project on a box. It will be amazing how quickly one can get done. This is a good chance to share our talents with others. I don't know about you, but when the heat goes up I stay inside a whole lot more, so maybe that will mean more time to paint. For me, it does not mean more domestic duties.

Hope to see you at May meeting and workshop.

April Minutes

The meeting of the Osceola Decorative Artists chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters was called to order by President Debbie Smith at 10:05 AM on Saturday, April 21, 2012. There were 11 members in attendance: Nan Paras, Bertie Porter, Debbie Smith, President, Marsha Lamb, Fran Barry, Grace Pattison, Jean Zawicki, Jill Terrell, Barbara Layton, Sandi Byers, and Mary Francis.

New Business:

The theme of today's short meeting is Committees and Committee Work. It was discussed whether to combine some of the committees with lesser duties as we are a small chapter with many committees. No firm decisions were made; rather invitations for suggestions are requested. Decisions will be voted on and finalized at May's meeting.

President Debbie Smith presented a design to be painted on the doors of the art room of the Osceola Center for the Arts, in which we hold our meetings. This would be one of our public service contributions. Other Public Service/Charity projects were solicited. Fran Barry suggested "Give Kids the World." She will investigate their needs and report back to the Chapter.

Motion was made, seconded, and approved via unanimous vote that we would continue doing Hope Boxes. There are cabinets available to be inserted into the space that the Art Center has cleared and offered to our chapter. Motion was made, seconded, and approved via unanimous vote by those present to allot funds in the amount of $400 toward filling this space. Further investigation of what is available, either the aforementioned cabinets, or some other form of storage, will be done. It was agreed that before spending any money, Barbara Layton will find out whether some supplies (nails, screws, tools, wood, etc. ) are already available as access in some of our members' households. We will utilize the skills and time of available husbands to accomplish this task.

A microwave will be purchased in the future and locked up in our new cabinets.

Show and Tell: Barbara Layton presented upcoming projects in next few months' meetings. There were several other lovely pieces presented by our members for all to enjoy.

Old Business: None

Sunshine Committee: Marsha Lamb requested to be notified if we knew of anyone needing cheer. She requested more birthday and sympathy cards.

Ways and Means: Today's raffle of a seven-piece margarita set painted by Mary Francis was won by Sandi Byers.

A challenge has been issued by our President: The member of ODA who paints the most hope boxes this year will get a special reward.

Today's meeting was adjourned at 10:45 AM.

We need nine classes for 2013. If you have a month you would definitely like to teach, please note this month on the submission sheet. The months open are January, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, and October. February and November are reserved for weekend Seminars and December is the Christmas Party.

The class fee for a member is $10.00 of which ODA will pay $5.00 per student to the teacher along with a fee of $40.00. The maximum student count is 25 or less. Whole day Workshops are from 10:00AM (following the business meeting) until 4:00 PM, with a break after the business meeting, lunch and an afternoon break. The teacher will supply, to the First Vice President, at least a minimum of three (3) months prior to the class a line drawing, prep instructions and a color photo of the project. Detailed instructions will be given to each student, who has paid to take the class, on the day of the class.

If using discontinued colors, please list a substitute for that color in your instructions. ODA letterhead will be supplied to the teacher in order to request paint from a distributor. If paint is not supplied by a distributor the members will bring their own paint.
