President's Message

By Mary Francis

Hello to all ODA Members!

Well, here we are in September. The final quarter of 2014 has begun and the busy-ness of the holiday season is upon us. Our painting is occupying a lot of our time because some of it is meant for gifts for our friends and loved ones.

Some of our painting efforts will be shown at the craft show in Kissimmee coming up in November. I'll be planning on offering some of my efforts for sale. Will you? It's a good time to try to sell some of our painted pieces that have been stacking up. I have been having trouble finding places to put some of mine and I hope selling will help find the space. Look for details elsewhere in this newsletter on how to prepare your painted items. Please follow Debbie's guidelines for marking as you do want to be paid, don't you? Debbie and I have been in communications in an effort to smooth the process. If we all do our part, it will be an easy show and hopefully not the last.

In the meantime, Ann Card is offering a lovely watercolor/mixed media piece for September's program. It is breathtakingly beautiful. Since I have no real experience with watercolor, this will truly be a learning project for me. Won't you plan to join us? See the photos in this newsletter.

And then in October, you will be painting my "Snowmen: Some Assembly Required" piece. It, too, is a mixed media piece in that you will experience several different techniques for painting. Please let Debbie know prior to September's meeting if you are committing to attend this lesson. I will be cutting matte boards and need to know how many to bring to you so that you can do your homework.

Don't forget our craft show in November!

Then, finally breathing a sigh of relief, December brings us our Christmas Party! Yay! It is always so much fun and an event that I love! Can hardly wait for that one! And during the party, we will be installing the new officers for 2015 and I will be turning over the love and care of Osceola Decorative Artists to a new president. I hope you all will attend this fun event.

Looking forward to seeing you in September. I'll be returning from my trip to Russia on the Tuesday prior to the meeting and I will be cutting matte boards for you (hopefully straight and accurate)! No telling how long an 8 hour time difference will effect me! Until next time!

Workshop/Seminar Report

By Debbie Smith

September:

Ann Card will be teaching a piece with a sunflower on a background done using webbing. It is really pretty and something different. It is the usual $15 workshop fee plus a supply fee of $10.

October:

Mary will be taking orders for the surface for this workshop. This will be an original design so we should feel pretty special to be the first ones to do this project. It is the usual $15 workshop fee plus a supply fee of $10.

November:

This is a great opportunity to get our name out to the community and raise funds to help cover our chapter's expenses.

We will be doing the art show in November. The dates are November 15th and 16th, 10 am to 5pm. Pieces for the booth can be donated to the chapter to sell and proceeds to the chapter or sold on a commission basis. There will be a sign up sheet at the meetings prior to and including the October meeting to commit to a block of time. We will also need help with set up and take down. If you sign up to work a shift either one of the two days your commission fee will be 10%. If you are unable to attend the show, the commission fee will be 20%. We will also be asking folks to demo. We are asking all pieces to be in to the chapter by the October meeting. There will be guidelines for labeling and packing in the newsletters as the time approaches.

2014 Project Calendar

Supply List for September Workshop

First of all, let's all hope and pray for a sunny day, but just in case of rain, a hair dryer would be a good thing.

The surface we will be working on is 16 x 20 so please bring an old towel to put under your surface as we may get it wet or get paint on it, and we will keep the tables unstained.

Water color brushes: a fairly large flat, maybe a 16, and a round 8. If you don't have these sizes, don't go out and buy any unless you want them anyway. Any larger flat will work for the background and the round for the sunflower petals. If you only have acrylic brushes, they will be fine.

Painter tape, frog tape, etc. in a width of at least one inch. I do not recommend regular masking tape because it might lift your background. (If you don't have tape, don't go out and buy it. I will bring some.)

Paper Towels

Watercolor palette (if you don't have one, just pick up one of those round inexpensive ones at Michaels or Hobby Lobby. I think they are under $2.00.

A water bucket with two wells - one for cleaning your brushes and one for clean water for your board.

Transfer paper, I believe white or grey will work, a piece of tracing paper, and a stylus.

A regular meeting of the Osceola Decorative Artists was held on August 16, 2014. The meeting was called to order @ 12:26 PM by our President, Mary Francis. The Secretary, Nan Paras, in attendance.

Treasurer's Report was approved as printed in the August newsletter.

Secretary's Report has one correction, in regards to the issue of raising the chapter dues from $15.00 to $25.00. Instead of 'all members present voted in favor' change to 'all members present, but one, voted in favor. Motion was carried'

Committee and Officer Reports:

- Upcoming Programs: Vice President, Debbie Smith - went over upcoming programs.
September – Ann Card –Sunflower Project
October – Mary Frances – Snowmen Project
November – Art Show in Downtown Kissimmee
- Hospitality: Sandi Byers – there is a need for coffee creamer. Miriam McCleese offered to bring some in.
- Charity: Debbie Smith – Will take all the items left over from our auction today to Bishop Grady. Barbara Layton reported on her delivering the donations to the Animal Shelter. Said they were pleased with all the donations & items the chapter raised. We received a nice Thank You letter from the Shelter. Everyone agreed we will have this charity again in February 2015.
- Decorative Dollars: Jean Zawicki – was in charge of our August program paying with decorative Dollars. Want to send a big Thank You to Jill Terrell, for helping Jean with all the displayed hope boxes, but wasn't able to attend. We missed you!
- Education: Kathy Murphy-Childs – not present. Mary Francis shared some information on an app for smart phones called Photo Sketch. App is free. She demonstrated on how it works. Amazing! Thanks Mary!
- Membership: Judi Arntz – not present
- Sunshine: Marsha Lamb – not present
- Ways and Means: TODAY's AUCTION
- Nominating Committee: Barbara Layton and Kathy Murphy-Childs (not present) – started discussion on the open positions that were needed for the 2015 term. After much discussion, it was decided, since further research was needed, the Board would meet and finalize what changes are needed. Then it will be presented to the members for discussion and approval.

Show and Tell: Janice Bosscher shared her heart ornament.

Adjournment: Carol Brown made the motion to adjourn @ 1:15 PM, Barbara Layton seconded.
