Letter From The President

By Ann Card

Time is flying by so just a few reminders for the busy season. Saturday, November 14 and 15 was the Art Show in Kissimmee. On Saturday, November 21st we are meeting at the Art Center to tidy up our cabinets and give the room a good cleaning. This will be one of our service projects for this year.

Our Christmas Party and Installation of Officers is Sunday, December 6th at 11:30. You still have time if you haven't started to paint your item for the gift exchange. If you can't get your item painted and you want to participate in the exchange you can purchase a gift to bring.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving.
Ann

!!!!Remember!!!!

We will be meeting this Saturday - November 21st at 9:00am to spruce up the art room. Ann and Jean are providing lunch and dessert. Remember to wear your cleaning clothes. See you there!

Osceola Decorative Artists October 17, 2015 Meeting Minutes

By Janice Bosscher

President Ann Card called the meeting to order at 10:00 am. First order of business was to approve both the August and September minutes as printed in the newsletter. The corrections for the September minutes are: under the slate of board members: Kathy Murphy-Childs, newsletter, should be removed...as this is not an elected position and Deanna Spence as Treasurer should be placed on the slate. The motion to correct and accept these September minutes, as well as the August minutes was made by Judi A, seconded, approved and carried.

Debbie Smith Talked about our Osceola Art Show in Kissimmee on November 15 & 16. Last year, our chapter took a commission of 10%, this year, to help cover tent rental and other expenses, it will be 15% of your asking price. If you do not work the booth, 25% commission will be collected. Carol Brown moved that this be approved, seconded by Mary Francis,, and it was unanimously approved. Members were asked to sign up for shifts or set up and tear down, and the fair is open 10 am to 5pm on Saturday and Sunday. Any member submissions must be tagged and an inventory list and waiver filled out. Today's workshop will be colored pencils with Carol Brown teaching us an Janelle Johnson Golden eagle bust.

January Judi Arntz will be teaching us an Albishar design using a Fine Line Writer. She has some Fine Line Writers for sale at $7. They can also be ordered through Dick Blick, Amazon, Hoffcraft, Loew Cornell. There will be a few colors based on the plate, the majority of the art work is done outlining with the Fine Line Writer. Debbie will be sending out a separate email closer to the January workshop with details and supply work. Judi Arntz reminded us that beginning today, our 2016 ODA dues are being collected. We currently have 25 members. The new membership form is available through her or in this newsletter. Please fill this out completely when turning in your dues. We were also reminded to renew our Society of Decorative Painters dues.

Ann Card highlighted many of the painting opportunities in the near future that will be available in Central Florida: January 8 & 9, Beth Wagner will be visiting the Sunstrokes chapter in Coral Springs, January 8, 9, 10 will also bring Nancy Medina (with her bright flowers from the Dallas Arboretum) right in this same building, the Citrus Ridge chapter will be hosting Diane Bukner Thanksgiving weekend as well as Cheri Rol the last two days of January. Mark Melendez will be in Orlando the last few days of October. Port Orange will have Elizabeth Purett in January.

FIVE MINUTES OF EDUCATION was presented by Sandi Byers with her wonderful dryer vent pumpkins. Supplies are a box of dryer vent hose (Usually about 5' x 4" which will make two pumpkins), spray paint in a color of your choosing (Sandi used a bright orange.) Some miscellaneous fall leaf decorations, hot glue gun and heavy duty scissors or metal cutters. Instructions: stretch out the vent hose and hang in tree or on line, spray paint. (Ignore neighbors who think you lost it!) When dry, cut in half, fill partially with small gravel, then attach end to end (she held hers together with clothespins) and hot glue shut. Adorn the top with hot glued ornament.fall décor. Thanks so much, Sandi!!!!

Marsha Lamb, hospitality said she would welcome birthday card donations.

Jean Zawecki had boxes there to collect donations for the Hope Boxes. We were encouraged to keep decorating Hope Boxes, and collecting practical everyday items. Needed are deodorant for teenage boys, under wear for children, soaps, feminine hygiene products, shampoos, etc.

Sunday, December 6 will be our Christmas Party, here in the reception room.

Because the Kissimmee Art Fair is on the second Saturday, we will still gather on our regular third Saturday to clean the tables and art room. Your supply list: elbow grease, Magic Erase, cleaning rags/paper towels, energy, your lunch and a sense of humor. Jean will be bringing cake and drinks.

There was no old business or new business, so we oohed and ahed over Show 'n'Tell: Carol showed a scrapbook for her colored pencils. Debbie showed her finished Marsha tea towel, a Margot Clark poppy from 2001 CACF and a Maureen McNaughton pattern painted by Beth Browning. Jean showed a beautiful special hope box, a Margot Clark Mud piece (complete with bling!), a TRAY FROM Old Time Pottery, a plastic battery candles painted with red and gold, and an ornament. Judi was wearing a Janice Miller fall painting on her shirt, a stenciled shoe box and her finished four seasons coasters!!!

Everyone commented on the WONDERFUL NEWSLETTER! Great job and thanks, Kathy Murphy-Childs!

Ann adjourned the meeting at 11:00 am....and we were off to coloring!!!
