September DecoArt Project

With Jean Zawicki and Jill Terrell

DecoArt's METALLIC LUSTRE PASTE & AMERICANA MULTI-SURFACE SATIN ACRYLICS

Prepared for Osceola Decorative Artist Meeting on September 17, 2016 by Jill and Jean

Jill and Jean are working to get a series of things together for you to do a "HANDS-ON SESSION" to see how you like working with these two products. Please read your Sept. newsletter for the miscellaneous items you need to bring. We will put together a package that will give you a chance to finish five (5+) items at the meeting, depending upon time restrictions. The five items we will teach are:

1. An adorable wine glass pumpkin candle holder; Multi-surface & Lustre (+ All findings to finish)
2. Large clear glass beer mug. Use your angle brushes to pull out fall leaves, pattern incl. Multi-Surface
3. Wooden pear. Your color choice with Lustre. Fall leaves & stem incl. (Lustres, several choices)
4. An adorable wine glass pumpkin candle holder; Multi-surface & Lustre (+ All findings to finish)

5. An adorable wine glass pumpkin candle holder; Multi-surface & Lustre (+ All findings to finish)
6. Large clear glass beer mug. Use your angle brushes to pull out fall leaves, pattern incl. Multi-Surface
7. Wooden pear. Your color choice with Lustre. Fall leaves & stem incl. (Lustres, several choices)
8. Frosted Christmas Ornament. Use a #6-8 filbert to create a free-hand stroke design. Inspiration sheet incl.
9. Glass Daisy Candy Jar. You'll get a lesson on doing a "free-hand daisy design". Uses a 6-8 filbert and multi-surface paints.
10. Wooden Star Ornament. Coat edges and back with the Lustre Paste & decorate front as desired.

You will receive full written instructions with color pictures and even a daisy step-by-step. I will do a few simple stroke design samples to use as inspiration for your ornaments as well. Your kit will also include miscellaneous things (fall leaves, ribbon, votives, etc.) to finish the above projects in class.

Jill and I have gathered some odds and ends (glazed china cups & papier mache' ornaments) that you can explore if you wish. You might have a HOPE BOX that you would like to trim the sides of a lid with Lustre, but not the entire box please. Bring one if you wish, as it takes just seconds and I have several new colors I will share. Works great. Also, did you get a fake pumpkin last fall? One per person please, to do if you finish the above projects.

We are working on LOTS of samples on tin, wood, glazed china, glass, etc. Bring your camera or phone and feel free to photograph the ideas for future reference. We'll be setting up stations and displays for your convenience. Painting can be done in your seats, as we will pass multi-surface paint by small amounts as needed on your plastic lids, due to limited supply. Be sure to bring a small bladed metal palette knife, so you can remove drying drops easily before getting fresh. The more I did with these products the more fun I've been having. Finding more and more places they work well with. Hope to see you in September!!!

If you have any further questions, just call or email Jean.

There is a $10. Supply fee for this workshop, which includes all of your painting surfaces.

September Project Supply List

What do you need to bring???

1. YOU
2. Brushes. A good liner for sure. Here's your chance to use those filberts and angle brushes (which work great), but your flat shaders work well too.
3. A Brush Basin
4. Scissors
5. A plastic lid or two (we'll have one in the kit for you) but with only one you'll have to clean it off
6. Small palette knife for removing partially dried paint from your plastic lid
7. Extra Viva paper towel and perhaps maybe some Kleenex
8. A dozen or so plastic grocery bags to stuff the insides of glass to hold the pattern steady. We have four projects...and to allow drying time you may be working on two or more at a time

Monthly Meetings

ODA meetings are the third Saturday of each month at:

*Osceola Arts: 2411 E. Irlo
Bronson Memorial Highway
(State Road. 192),*

Kissimmee, FL 34744

November Program

By Carol Brown

Since the Kissimee Art Show date has been changed it was decided at the July meeting to do something a little different for the November meeting.

We have several activities on the agenda so let's start with something near and dear to my heart—my stomach! For the past few years we have had a member appreciation lunch prepared by one or two members of the chapter so this year we are going to do the same but we want to spread out the preparation to a few members instead of one member handling the majority of it! Soooo—we are going to let Publix prepare a tray of Cubanitos, Carol is making a big bowl of fruit compote (semi-healthy) and we need some chips and dip (or salsa or queso), drinks, and a dessert or two. Contact Mary or Carol if you are willing to be responsible for an item.

Next, we will have an Artist Trading Card exchange. See more about this in the following article.

Then, Ann Card has some new products that she will be introducing for us. She will have additional information on them at a later date. Finally, a “clean out your closet-make room for more” auction. If you have unfinished projects, 24 bottles of warm white, 2 of the same pattern packet (if 1 was cute 2 must have been better!) or pieces of wood (what was I thinking) that you will never paint on—bring them in so we can auction them off and all the proceeds will go towards ODA expenses. If you love to organize, like I do, just how many pencil boxes do I really need “just in case” so bring in those extra “it was a good idea at the time” goodies and lets have fun with the auction.

Artist Trading Cards (ATC)

History of ATC excerpted from the Jean Hansen web site: "In 1997, Swiss Artist, M. Vanci Stirnemann, created 1200 cards by hand as part of an exhibit. On the last day, he invited others to create their own cards and trade with him during the closing reception. After that, the movement took off as other artists organized major "swap" events! Today, there are ATC swaps in almost every major city around the world. There are also many online swaps."

Rules for ATC: The card must be 2 ½" x 3 ½" and can be created from any medium. Also, it is strongly suggested that these cards be traded not sold.

Reminder: On the back of the card put your name and date. If it is not an original pattern—give credit to the designer.

Mary and I brought many in to show at the August meeting and those attending could see the diverse ways that each took in creating our cards. Maybe you are fond of fish or butterflies, your cards could reflect that. Maybe you really like fall or Halloween, your cards might follow those lines. Maybe you could try all sort of media or something you have wanted to try but didn't want to invest a lot of time—these are small and paint up quickly!

There are many ways to display or store these cards. There are numerous web sites dedicated to offering supplies, ideas and exchanges. There are internet videos on creating the cards.

What a fun thing to collect—original art work created by ODA members! We hope you will join us by bringing cards to trade at the November meeting.

Previous Meeting Minutes

By Janice Bosscher

2016, August 20 ODA Meeting Minutes

Lynn I. called the meeting to order at 10:05 am and asked everyone to place their phones on silent or vibrate. Our President, Ann Card developed a fever and Lynn was stepping up as V.P.

The Treasury report was motioned as approved by Judi A., seconded by Kathy MC and carried.

The secretarial report was motioned as approved by Deanna S. and seconded by Debbie S, and carried.

The nominating committee for new 2017 officers has been busy sending emails to members. The committee consists of Judi, Marcia and Sandy and they are looking to fill vacancies for President, Vice President and Secretary. Our job as members is to support of board members and the nominating committee. Please consider how you can help our ODA board.

Our Christmas party will be December 4, the first Sunday of December and the committee consists of Lynn, Kathy and the two Sandy's.

The national SDP convention will be in Daytona in May. Discussion was held as to our involvement in this event.

Jill reported that she could not find the "Creative Cash" in our cupboard.

Guests were Georgette, Gail and Kathy.

Because there is no Kissimmee Art Fair this November, the November meeting will consist of three parts. Live AUCTION with the one and only Carol!

Bring in your wood, left-over-projects-you-lost-interest-in, art and craft supplies...clean out your junk and buy someone else's and it magically becomes treasure!

We will also have our member appreciation LUNCHEON and TRADE ARTISTS CARDS. Carol and Mary demonstrated artists cards where you do whatever media you want on a 2 ½ x 3 ½ card stock. These are just like the trading cards from when we were younger. You can get sleeves to protect them and/or sheet magnets for a classy refrigerator magnet.

They showed examples of everything from hindeloopen to water color and Carol's colored pencil eagle. Artist names are put on the back, and we are all encouraged to make our own for exchange in November, as well as get ready for SDP convention (May, 2017 in Daytona) There was also a supply of blank cards there for us to start on.

Lynn passed around a sheet with projects from Mark Menendez for us to choose our favorites...as he will be coming her in March Jill and Jean will need a count of those interesting in their multi media projects in September. You will be able to leave with 4 finished projects.

Bear With Us is having their annual open house and if there are enough of us, we can participate in a make it and take it project on Friday or Sunday of the first weekend of November. Even though she was quite nervous about leading a meeting, Lynn did wonderful and adjourned the meeting.

Jan Bosscher, ODA Secretary.

Membership News

By Carol Brown

It's that time of year again—to renew your ODA membership!!

Membership dues are $25.00 for the year.

This amount goes toward almost complete coverage of our financial obligations as a chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters. Our commitments include room rent from the Osceola Center for the Arts, SDP insurance, membership assessment, web site maintenance, etc. We have a few small money makers during the year to make up the difference but it sure has been nice the last few years not to wear ourselves to a frazzle with enormous money making undertakings.

Membership dues are payable by December 31 with a late fee of $5.00 charged after that.

Remember you MUST be a member of SDP to have a membership in a local chapter!! This year if you have paid your 2017 dues and turned in your 2017 membership profile by November 19 (our November chapter meeting) your name will go in a box for a drawing. There will be two drawings: one prize is a hand painted piece by Mary Francis and the other is a $25.00 gift card from Michaels.

Located in this newsletter (and those for the remainder of the year) is a 2017 profile. You may send it to me (Carol Brown) with your check made out to ODA or you may turn it in to me with your check or cash at the November chapter meeting. The drawing will be at the meeting of November 19.
