President's Message

To all ODA Members,

I am sincerely happy and relieved that all have come through the hurricane with little or no damage. As one who has never experienced a hurricane before, it was truly an experience, for sure. My outages of power and then internet, phone, etc., were nothing compared to what most of you experienced during the Charlie hurricane. We are fortunate that we dodged the bullet this time and didn't have too many problems in the immediate area. Counties south of us had to deal with much longer outages. I do hope they are doing well by this time.

If any of you have decorative artist friends in South Florida who have lost all their art supplies and could use a helping hand to replace them, please let me know. I have friends in Colorado who have felt the needs of those less fortunate and are waiting to ship painting supplies to those in need. The Pikes Peak Chapter of Colorado Springs has asked me to help in their effort. They are gathering items in a big way. Please, if you know of someone, connect me with them so that I can pass on the information.

This month we are celebrating Decorative Painting Month by having a very special get-together. We will still have a meeting, hopefully brief, and then a day of fun with several free demos and lots of good food. Please see the list in this newsletter if you have forgotten what dish you are bringing.

Next month is our program for which you, as members, will only have to pay 30 Decorative Dollars. There will be a cash supply fee, but otherwise the program is only 30 Decorative Dollars. How much fun can we have!!!

Don't forget to keep track of your FO's (Finished Objects) for the October meeting. We're going to have a wonderful Show and Tell of all those wonderful, long aged, works of art. And don't forget that you will be entered into a drawing for some very special items. The more you finish, the better your chances of winning!!! Barbara has already provided some beautiful pieces so I think I just might have to join in the fun and contribute to the bounty of prizes as well.

Until October, stay well, paint lots and enjoy life!
Mary

Are you looking forward to another whole year of paint fun and socializing. If so your ODA membership dues are due by December 31. So all you beautiful painters just copy your 2018 Membership Registration Form and write a check for $25.00 and send to Jill Terrell, 22 New York Ave., St. Cloud, FL 3469 or turn it in at the meeting. I will see you there.

2017 Minutes - Debbie Smith

No meeting in September, no minutes.

Philanthropic - Jean Zawick

Hope Boxes are still being accepted at every meeting. Congratulations to the 14 members who have turned in boxes to date.

Twelve members have brought in six: Jean, Jill, Sandi B, Grace, Pam, Brenda, Barbara L, Kathy, Mary and Bertie. One to go for Debbie.

Nine members have gone over six into the 2nd drawing. Jean, Jill, Sandi B., Barbara L, Pam, Brenda, Kathy, Mary, & Bertie

Still time, as the drawing won't occur until the Christmas Party. I've added a 3rd drawing for anyone going beyond the 12 boxes. So far that is just Sandi B.; however Jill, Barbara L, Pam & Mary are almost there ...just one short of a dozen each. You will get a ticket for each and every box you bring in. It sure makes the recipients' day to get something pretty for their birthday no matter their age. Big pat on the back to all. Jean
